FLOWER SHOW AND ATHLETIC SPORTS AT RAINHILL.

The sixth annual exhibition of the Rainhill Floral and Horticultural Society was held on Saturday, in a field belonging to Mr. Strettle, in close proximity to the village; and, in addition to the show, there was given upon the same ground an excellent programme of athletic sports, which had been arranged by the committee of the Rainhill Athletic Society. The funds of the Horticultural Society had considerably suffered by the failure of two or three of the previous shows in consequence of the unfavourable weather, and this year it was hoped that with a little extra attraction the society would regain its former prosperous condition.
